

Data security and privacy statement

sumUp for Jira Cloud does not store or collect any data from your Jira instance.

The collected data is accessed via REST API, so everything that a user is not allowed to view cannot be viewed via the sumUp for Jira Cloud app.

Read our full Data security and privacy statement

If you still have questions, feel free to refer to our support team.