

Hide transition from user (bulk operation only)

This condition hides the transition from users in the standard workflow.

The transition is only available, if users choose to execute it using the standard Jira bulk transition operation.

No further configuration is needed for this condition.

If you still have questions, feel free to refer to our support team.