sumUp post function

The sumUp post function can be used to sum up a specific field from issues selected via JQL or a Filter and store the calculated value in the specified current issue's field.

The post function can be added by going to a workflow transition and adding a new post function sumUp post function.

If you still have questions, feel free to refer to our support team.